The Senior Resident Students spend their day in school in much the same way as day students. Only after 3 o'clock does their pattern of life change. To maintain their grades they have study classes in the evening. They enjoy the comforts of life such as T.V., pool, cards, and movies and are active in many sports.

Their day begins at 7:30 A.M. with breakfast in the cafeteria. Each Senior Resident Student must fulfill his duty to keep the dorm in a respectable condition. The religious aspect of life is stressed as well.

B.C. CO-CHAMPS

The 1967 football season was a very successful one. The only losses recorded were against Washington State teams. The Irish opened the season on September 8th against the rugged Bulldogs of Mt. Vernon. They were very much in the game until the final minutes when Mt. Vernon pushed across their last major leaving the score Mt. Vernon 34 — V.C. 21. The following week, the Irish were defeated soundly by the Wenatchee Panthers. Opening at home, the fighting Irish put up an inspired effort against the Port Angeles Roughriders. Tied 0-0 going into the 4th quarter, the game broke wide open and the Irish were left with a 15-0 defeat.

After two weeks rest, the team came back strong against the Bellingham Red Raiders. This was one of the finest and most exciting games in recent years. A touchdown and convert in the dying minutes of the fourth quarter gave the Irish a 20-19 victory. Coming home to play against Vancouver district teams, the Irish proved their ability by overwhelming St. Thomas More and Centennial. Even though the team was defeated at Snohomish, the final trip south built up confidence for the upcoming Canadian teams. However, back at Cap Stadium on November 10th, the Irish once again regained possession of the Archbishop Trophy by defeating Notre Dame 7-6.

The highlight of the 1967 season came when the fighting Irish faced the Britannia Bruins in the Shrine Bowl at Empire Stadium. In the first half, the Irish controlled the ball and were ahead by a score of 13-7. But, in the second half the defence could not hold the Bruins. A touchdown in the final quarter by Britannia tied the score at 13-13 and time ran out. Darrell Matthias was declared the most valuable lineman of the game.

Head Coach Br. Fairleigh (right) and Assistant Coaches Mr. Hunter and Mr. Ohler lead the Irish to victory.

Inverarity and Scarff move in to stop a Como Lake advance.

This year the Junior Irish showed the true spirit and determination expected of a College team. Throughout the year the defense was the power behind the Irish victories and as the season progressed the offense proved more than adequate. The experience gained this year promises to be a major asset to next year's team.

Mike MacKay-Dunn hangs on for a tackle.

Gang tackling was the strong point of the Junior Irish.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Oscar Martinez moves in for a quick lay-up.

Mr. MacKay of Burnaby North congratulates Coach Crame on a fine game.

This year's Varsity Team, under the experienced coaching of Mr. E. Crame, faced the major task of trying to live up to the sensational number one finish of last year. The rebuilt team had a good season's record with an impressive 22 wins and 8 losses. As the season progressed, the team showed increased strength and, although losing to Burnaby Central in the Pennsylvania Tournament, came back strongly to eliminate John Oliver, Lord Byng and finally Burnaby North to finish #2 in the Lower Mainland.

This year was the record 18th time the Irish have been in the Tournament. In the first round, the Irish overwhelmed heavily favoured North Surrey to advance into the second round of championship play. Against the Sentinel Spartans, the Fighting Irish were defeated on a last second desperation shot which ended our hopes for a second consecutive championship.

On December 8, 1967, we received the sad news of Brother Walsh's death a scant three weeks after his departure for Ireland, on which occasion the following tribute appeared in the Vancouver Sun:

Vancouver this morning returned with love to Ireland something that had been on loan to this city for 44 years - the wise and kindly presence of Rev. Brother Eamon B. Walsh.

Brother Walsh, now 67, will retire to Baldoyle (a home for retired religious) near Dublin after 37 years at Vancouver College, the Christian Brothers of Ireland school for boys in Shaugnessy.

He is a legend to generations of people in Vancouver who were taught by him or merely came in contact with him through his work at the College.

Brother Walsh held a master's degree in English for Gonzaga University in Spokane and he taught English. His other interests were art - and he was a modest but competent artist - drama and athletics.

He joined the Christian Brothers in Dublin in 1916 and came to Vancouver to teach in 1923 the year after Vancouver College opened in Rosary Hall on Richards Street.

DEPARTS

Lean and spare, always warmly tanned, kind and observant, eyes blue as the mists of Ireland, and with gentle voice that always held a trace of his native County Carlow; was the Brother Walsh everyone knew. He was principal at the College from 1939-45.

There is no dispute that Brother Walsh was the best tennis, badminton, and handball player among the many brothers at the College.

He was ambidextrous and needed no backhand, playing his shots equally well with either hand. And he was a competent golf player as well.

One story illustrates his ability. In 1966, Gary Schwertfeger, a young center with the B.C. Lions professional football team, was also coaching at the College.

Schwertfeger took up handball, and when he thought he was getting pretty efficient challenged Brother Walsh. The score was 3 to 0 in favour of the 66 year old teacher and Schwertfeger never challenged again.

There are hundreds of stories of that kind about Brother Walsh but most people's memories are of his gentleness and understanding.

And all Vancouver can do is send heartfelt thanks to Ireland for letting him be part of this city for so many years.

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE 1968

This year, Vancouver College sponsored a Conference on leadership in the high school system, a first in the history of British Columbia. John Mills was the chairman of the entire assembly. United were representatives of thirty-one schools on the Lower Mainland. The problems of communication and authority were discussed. Dr. Patrick McTaggart-Cowan, president of S.F.U., and Mr. Herb Capozzi M.L.A. addressed the Conference. The overall assembly met with great success and was a credit to the leadership capabilities of College.

Dr. Patrick McTaggart-Cowan was the keynote speaker of the assembly.

At the Leadership Conference, Dr. McTaggart-Cowan (President of S.F.U.), Arthur Weeks (S.F.U.), Douglas Hall (B.C.I.T.), and Ross Ballantyne (V.C.C.) prepare for their seminars.

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence.

Talent will not.
Nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent.

Genius will not.
Unsuccessful genius is almost a proverb.

Education will not.
The world is full of educated derelicts.

Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

The slogan "press on" has solved, and always will solve, the problems of the human race.

The above philosophy was noted in the office of another company. We have reprinted it because we liked it. It could well apply to us all.

SUCCESS

Every man is a better man for the knowledge he got through his education. It enlarges his capacity for beneficial accomplishment and increases his earning power. It enriches his vision and enhances his understanding of his world and its people. It builds lasting friendships and opens important doors to a fuller, richer, more abundant life. Like any other worthwhile achievement education requires honesty of effort and sincerity of purpose. Given these ingredients it will reap the biggest rewards. For education is the Golden Key to man's successful future.
